Innovation Strategy

This session is ideal for teams responsible for product, service innovation or transformation. Balancing inspiration with structure, this course provides strategies for ideation and breakthrough innovation, and follows with new insights on creating business models for success.

“I feel energized and much better equipped to think things through and start engineering the enterprise. Thanks!”

Kelvin White
Corporate Technical Architect
Talisman Energy

“The greatest reward from this two-day course was the depth of John’s knowledge on the industry in general with regards to the framework. This is the value added, separate from the content.”

Sherry Shaaked
Manager, Planning & Coordination
Infrastructure Canada

“Hour-for-hour, this is the best seminar I have attended. The instructors thoroughly covered concepts, demonstrated their application effectively and convincingly explained the consequences of poor architectural practice.”

Daniel A. Joseph, Ph.D.
Associate Professor, MIS
Rochester Institute of Technology

“This has been an eye opening experience. Receiving this training from the masters will most certainly keep measurable benefits going forward. Stan provided additional concepts and practices around implementation strategies, a critical next step in exploiting the framework ontology – this was great!!!”

Dennis Johnson
System Architect
Wellmark Blue Cross Blue Shield
